WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Celebrate International Women’s Day with the Sustainable Minerals Institute

SEMINAR

Ever aspired to be a leading lady? Working towards a role in senior management?

Unlock the secrets to a successful career at SMI’s Inaugural Women’s Day seminar.

Insights from guest speaker Rosemary Howard will be followed by a panel discussion with WH Bryan Mining and Geology Research Centre Director Professor Margie Scott and Centre for Social Responsibility in Mining researcher Dr Deanna Kemp.

GUEST SPEAKER
Rosemary Howard

Rosemary Howard is the Executive Director of Executive Education at the Australian School of Business, UNSW. Rosemary has over 30 years senior management experience and was awarded an Australian Government Centenary Medal for ‘Service to Australian Society in Business Leadership’ in 2003.

WHEN  8 March 2012
TIME  2pm–3pm
WHERE  Level 4 Seminar Room Build 47A, SMI
CONTACT Maya McCarthy m.mccarthy3@uq.edu.au T. 07 3346 4094
RSVP  5 March 2012
(for catering purposes)

POWERED BY THE SMI PEOPLE DEVELOPMENT TEAM

www.smi.uq.edu.au